Reasons For Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

A test circuit and method of use comprising a first recording unit recording and counting at least two successively produced signal states of a reference signal producing an output voltage in a generator circuit wherein the output voltage is an internal voltage supply for the integrated circuit, a second recording unit recording signal states of a time reference signal and an output circuit connected to the first and second recording units outputting a numerical value of the signal states of the reference signal and the time reference signal to determine an electrical characteristic variable as further detailed in claims 1 and 6 has not been found.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Russell Kobert whose telephone number is (571) 272-1963.
